

2018 CovTalks Presenters

Adam Gustine, director of ministry initiatives for Love Mercy Do Justice, will lead us through our time together.

Mauricio Dell' Arciprete, pastor of Nuevo Pacto / New Covenant Church, Minneapolis, MN, will talk about living out Joel 2:28 through church partnership.

Lavern Holdeman, an ordained Covenant pastor and financial consultant, attends Community Covenant Church, Omaha, NE. He will talk about the Financial Leadership Initiative, which was established in 2016 through a $1,000,000 grant from the Lilly Endowment, and its three components of financial education for pastors, financial assistance for clergy and their families, and congregational financial leadership training for pastors and lay leaders.

Stephanie Williams O'Brien, who serves at Mill City Church, Minneapolis, MN, will talk about unleashing kingdom communities to make an impact in your city.

