Covenant churches gave a total of $10.7 million to ECC mission and ministry for a 0.5% increase in local church giving. Individual gifts provided more than $6.6 million to base mission activity as well as an array of designated ministries to mark a 3.5% increase in direct donor support.

Growth Statistics

- Average weekend worship attendance on any given Sunday was estimated at 223,000.
 - About 33% of all ECC congregations are now among populations of color or intentionally multiethnic, making the ECC one of the most diverse denominations.
9. Thirty-two new church planters were commissioned.
 10. The Covenant Pension Plan, which provides retirement benefits to approximately 2,200 active and retired pastors, missionaries, and their surviving spouses, continues to reflect strong investment performance. The plan remains well funded at 105% of the projected actuarial liability of $241.5 million. Bethany Benefit Service provides medical, dental, prescription drug, vision, life, and long-term disability benefits to pastors, missionaries, office staff, surviving spouses, and families. A 3.5% rate increase was announced for 2017, which remains low in a healthcare environment characterized by 10 percent increases.
 11. Bethany Benefit Service provides medical, dental, prescription drug, vision, life, and long-term disability benefits to pastors, missionaries, office staff, surviving spouses, and families. Bethany Benefit Service held 2018 medical rate increases to 3%, much lower than rate increases in the broader healthcare environment.
 12. The Covenant Companion received a total of twenty awards for its work in 2017 at the Evangelical Press Association and Associated Church Press conferences, including the Associated Church Press's "best in class" for denominational magazine.

27. President Walter and the Annual Meeting honored Richard Lucco for his faithful and effective service as executive director for ministry development and interim executive minister of Develop Leaders/ Ordered Ministry. President Walter also honored Chris Hagberg, his administrative partner of nearly 18 years.

Funding the Mission

28. The Covenant Annual Meeting approved a 2019 Mission and Ministry budget of $25.8 million. Paul Hawkinson, executive director of finance, noted that 100% of all ECC mission support is funded by external revenue, which means 100% of church giving goes directly to the mission priorities.
29. Hawkinson explained that there will be ongoing evaluation of the future form of the Covenant Pension Plan with a commitment to make future retirement programs more accessible and equitable for lower-income church settings. He estimated that the current plan would likely be closed to new participants on Dec. 31, 2019. He indicated that participants after that date would be part of a new plan, and reiterated that we will always have a mandatory plan.
30. During 2017, National Covenant Properties disbursed about $35 million to fund projects at local Covenant churches.
